RESEARCH INCENTIVE AWARD

The Research Incentive Award is meant to enable undergraduate science students to enter the world of scientific scholarship who have not participated in an undergraduate research opportunity before. Applicants are responsible for seeking their own supervisors. Research Incentive Awards may be used towards either: (1) research costs for projects proposed by applicants or (2) research training costs to enable students to participate in ongoing research projects.

Research Incentive Awards are awarded once per academic year and are non-renewable. The maximum allocation per award is $250.00. Successful applicants should be prepared to present their research experience at the annual Multidisciplinary Undergraduate Research Conference.

All applications must be submitted electronically to avp.finance@sus.ubc.ca.
